Doorways to Islamic Education

EDMONTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Vision

Education that brings us closer to the Creator

A process of learning based on the Qur'anic worldview, encompassing all disciplines, to develop critical minds, conscious hearts, and compassionate human beings capable of meeting the challenges of the 21st century.

Toward 21st century learning from an Islamic perspective

How can curriculum better address the needs of Muslim students and their families?

How can education be rooted in the Qur'anic worldview?

How can the learning experience become supportive for each student?

Doorways to Islamic Civilization

As an introductory enrichment option, Argyll Centre is offering an eight week program that will explore many aspects of Islamic civilization through storytelling and interactive learning.

From 5:00 - 7:30 pm on Tuesdays throughout April and May, 2007.

All parents and members of the community are invited to the culminating event in May.

This program is after regular school hours and open to all K-12 students attending Edmonton Public Schools. The first to apply will be the first registered. Space is limited. Please contact the Argyll Centre for more information.

Public Meeting

A public meeting about developing a program of learning based on the Qur'anic world view.

We invite you to participate. Share your expertise. Contribute to the development of the vision.

Volunteer to help facilitate "Doorways to Islamic Civilization" in the spring.

Tuesday, December 12, 2006 at 7:00 p.m.
